and liberations and delays of justice. We just simply don't know what to say. We can only work on, do our duty and beg and trust, jurors to take a step to so much killing. Justice and truth should be more difficult to establish. The people are downhearted. Our personal experience so far teaches us that any man, however bitter or ungenerously his enemies may be, may so condone himself that he may be "merciful" for him to take human life.

Let us spread this doctrine—Share the Good.
